Person #1 – _____, can I ask you a question? (una domanda)?

Person #2 – Yes _____, I am ready, what is it?

Person #1 – Do you remember when you used to always be tired (stanco)?

Person #2 – Yes, when I was a student, I used to always be tired because I had too much homework (compiti). Why?

Person #1 – Tomorrow I will be at school and tomorrow night I will have too much homework.

Person #2 – You will do fine, you are very intelligent.

Person #1 – I know but the day after tomorrow (dopo domani) I will be too tired to help you!

Person #2 – We will not be too tired. You will see. We will not have too much to do.

Person #1 – The owners of slaves (padroni degli schiavi) in Rome were so!

Person #2 – What? Be an adult (adulto)!

Person #1 – Really? Be an adult? You say this to mean after you have been mean?

Person #2 – I have been mean? Excuse me? Are you hungry?

Person #1 – No, I am not hungry but...

Person #2 – Were you hungry yesterday? Will you be hungry tomorrow?

Person #1 – No, I have always had all that I need.

Person #2 – Want more money (denaro)? Have some!

Person #1 – No thank you, I have enough.

Person #2 – Why do you have enough?

Person #1 – Because you always give me everything I need. But we have to wash 28 cars tomorrow!

Person #2 – And what are you saying?

Person #1 – Daddy (Mommy), I am only 5!
