Person #1 – Good evening and welcome. What would y'all desire (desiderate)?

Person #2 – We need a table for four please.

Person #1 – Did you make a reservation (prenotazione)?

Person #2 – Yes, I called yesterday (ieri) and made a reservation? My name is Mr. Rossi.

Person #1 – I am sorry (mi dispiace), I did not see it. Do you know with whom (con cui) you spoke?

Person #2 – Stefano, he said that he wrote our name in the book.

Person #1 – Here it is! Your name, but I only see a reservation for two. Were four people included in this reservation?

Person #2 – Yes, four people were included, Did you read it correctly (correttamente)?

Person #3 – Y'all have discussed this enough (abastanza)! The restaurant is not full (pieno). Can we have a table for four please?

Person #2 – Yes, it is not a problem. Here is a table for four.

Person #1 – Have you been here before?

Person #3 – Yes, we were here last week? I drank the House Chianti.

Person #1 – Was it good? Did you like it?

Person #3 – Actually no, it was not good. I didn't like it (non mi piaceva).

Person #1 – Really? What did you eat?

Person#3 – I ate the steak and potatoes, they ate the fish and pasta.

Person#1 – Was the food good?

Person#3 – No, the food had a bad flavor (sapore).

Person #1 – Why did you decide to bring us here?

Person #2 – I don't know! We need to leave!

Person #1 – I agree. Let's go!
