Try to learn how to say everything below in Italian (using the simple present tense for the progressive present), print out and bring the printable form of this dialog and be prepared to say the dialog below for one of the persons in class.

Person #1 – Hi _____.

Person #2 – Hello _____, how are you?

Person #1 – Not too bad, and you, how are you?

Person #2 – I am well, thank you. Will you be ready for the exam (esame) tomorrow (domani)?

Person #1 – Yes. I study 2 hours (ore) a day and tonight I will study 2 more hours.

Person #2 – Really (davvero)? Chuck will be impressed (impressionato)! You are a good student!

Person #1 – Maybe. I just want to learn Italian. Chuck says if I study, then I will learn.

Person #2 – Why do you want to learn Italian? Why do you study every (ogni) day?

Person #1 – Because next (prossimo) year, I will go to Italy with the group and when we go, we will want to go shopping (fare le spese [infinitive]), etc. I will be able to speak Italian before we go.

Person #2 – I still do not know why you want to study Italian. Why do you want to go to Italy? Spanish and Chinese will be the languages of the future (future). If you want to be rich (ricco) you will need to learn those languages.

Person #1 – My uncles says he will probably (probabilmente) never be rich but he will enjoy life!

Person #2 – I will never understand you. What do you want to say?

Person #1 – Some things are more precious (preziose) than money and are not always expensive (costose).

Person #2 – What are those things?

Person #1 – These things are friendships (amicizie), love, good food, good wine, knowing how to relax (per rilassarsi) and learning a beautiful language.

Person#2 – Maybe I will learn Italian!

Person#1 – You will need to study a lot!

Person#2 – If you can learn Italian then I can learn it too!

Person #1 – I am hungry, let's have dinner.

Person #2 – ok, let's go!
